

Mythili Sriram, Consultant, CSR Projects, Apollo Hospitals

Mythili Sriram is a leading Corporate Social Responsibility Consultant, involved in the planning and execution of various projects for causes such as Health & Sanitation, Environmental Issues, Rain Water Harvesting, Disaster and Relief operations, Community policing, and Social welfare among many others. With an education in Economics from Chennai, she liaisons with various Government authorities, NGOs and Clubs.

Along with being a Trustee of Billion Hearts Beating Foundation, she is also actively involved in Supply of Medicines, free of cost to the senior citizens in Chennai, as a part of the Old Age Home Program.

As a consultant on Corporate Social Responsibility, she is actively working with Apollo Hospitals on various projects such as: Manufacturing of Sanitary napkin at Women's Prisons in Chennai; Training for about 1000 Traffic Police personnel on Basic Life Skills; Basic life Skills training for public in about 50 slums in Chennai; Coordination of Organ donation awareness programs for Corporates & Police department, and; Setting up of Mahatma Gandhi Community College within Central Prisons in Tamil Nadu.

Working on many other social projects, she is affiliated with NGOs and initiatives such as Exnora, Indian Red Cross Society, Child Line, Slum Adoption Program, and Naam Foundation among others.

Mythili Sriram has been recognized for her dedicated commitment to social welfare time and again.

She has received the following honours and Awards over the years:

- Outstanding Young Achiever's Award, by Rock Town Jaycees Club of Trichy in 1999
- Women Achiever's Award, by Trichy Ladies Circle No.33 in 2000
- Outstanding Citizen Award, by Trichy Tamil Sangam in 2001